

CONFERENCE OF NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY
EUROPEAN AFFAIRS COMMITTEES

Paris, 16th and 17th November 1989

Palais Bourbon, Room 6217

AGENDA

THURSDAY 16th NOVEMBER

*Chairman: Mr. Charles Josselin,
Chairman of the National Assembly European Communities Delegation*

- 10.30am Opening of the Conference.
- Message from Mr. Laurent Fabius, President of the National Assembly.
 - Introductory report by Mr. Jacques Genton, President of the Senate European Communities Delegation.
 - Speeches by the representatives of all the national parliamentary committees:
- Given the number of speakers, it is proposed:
- to limit the time given to each country to 15 minutes (increased to 20 minutes where there are two European affairs committees);
 - to consider that all the participants are familiar with the factual information in research and documentation dossier No. 3 (April 1989) published by the European Parliament and the E.P.R.D.C., based on information supplied by national parliaments;
 - that the speeches should deal with the results of the control exercised by the national committee and the limits of this control and that suggestions should be made for its improvement, either by changing the powers exercised or the methods used in the national setting, or through inter-parliamentary and international co-operation between Community affairs committees.
- 11.30am Break.
- 11.45am Resumption of the session.
Continuation of speeches.
- 1pm Lunch given by the President of the National Assembly at the Hôtel de Lassay.
- 3.15pm Resumption of the session.
